government proffered defendant committed some of the crimes alleged in the complaint while he was on federal supervision for a prior fraud related conviction.

The defendant was arrested in October 2008. The government proffered that defendant fled from security officers after attempting to make purchases of high-end electronic equipment using stolen credit card information. Defendant was arrested after being found hiding in a pile of sand. Police subsequently searched a car associated with the defendant and found a printer capable of making false identifications and paperwork connecting the defendant to his codefendant Mr. Jang.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshall, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer. DATED this 25th day of November, 2008.

BRIAN A. TSUCHIDA United States Magistrate Judge
